5. Architecture Notes

How the Agent Routes Requests

```
Question
  │
  ├─ Is greeting / casual chat?  → Friendly response (no DB, no LLM)
  │
  ├─ Is general knowledge?       (tech stack Qs, best practices, interview advice)
  │     └─ YES → Groq LLM only  (no DB context)            ← uses tokens
  │
  ├─ Is recruitment data question?  (jobs, candidates, CVs, interviews, settings)
  │     └─ YES → Query DB →   get_direct_answer()
  │           ├─ Is simple count / list / detail?
  │           │     └─ Return direct DB answer           ← ZERO tokens
  │           └─ Complex / narrative / comparison?
  │                 └─ Groq LLM + DB context             ← uses tokens
  │
  └─ Neither → "I can help with..." guidance response
```

Token Efficiency

Metric	Value
DB-only tests (no tokens)	20 / 30 (66.7%)
LLM tests (tokens used)	10 / 30 (33.3%)
Total tokens used	11,449
Average tokens per LLM call	~1,145 total (prompt: ~542, completion: ~603)
Tests 1–20	DB-only: counts, lists, job details, time slots, settings
Tests 21–30	LLM: markdown tables, tech interview Qs, analysis, recommendations
